

WOOD THREATENS MARTIAL LAW IN PHILIPPINES TO QUELL UPHEAVAL

Nude Body Of Wife Is Found As Husband Battles For Life

PITTSBURGH, July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The nude body of Mrs. Patrick Coyne, an 18-year-old girl who was married only a few months ago, was found in her home today by her father, John Conroy, when he went there to tell her that her husband, a railroad brakeman, had lost his legs in an accident, and was battling for his life in a Pittsburgh hospital.

Mrs. Coyne had been beaten to death as she lay in bed.

Coyne went to work yesterday afternoon, leaving his wife at home, and soon after midnight Conroy was notified by the hospital that he was being called for Mrs. Coyne. Conroy rushed to his daughter's house, but repeated knocking brought no answer. He forced the door and found his daughter dead. First investigation by the police failed to reveal traces of robbery, they said. The Coynes lived in Port Perry, a suburb.

Death was caused by a bullet wound through the left temple, according to police. A revolver, the chambers of which were empty, was found in a bed room under the head of the slain bride. It was identified as belonging to Patrick Coyne, husband of the girl. In a pocket of Coyne's coat hanging in a cupboard detectives found four loaded shells and two empty ones. Two other empty shells were found in a fire grate in the room. Coyne, a brakeman, is on the verge of death in the West Penn Hospital today following the loss of two legs as a result of falling from a train of cars. Hospital authorities say Coyne apparently knows nothing of the murder of his beautiful five months bride as he keeps crying for his wife to come to him. The room in which Mrs. Coyne was murdered was in a state of disorder when police took charge of the case. Blood stained clothing was found scattered about the room. A railroad lantern, a small bottle of moonshine, and a box of shells were found in the bedroom. A bloody finger print was found on a mantle and the base of an oil lamp.

Claim Political Persecution

WACKEGAN, ILL., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The trial and acquittal of Fred Landin in Chicago, last week, was ended yesterday in the acquittal of Edward Courtney, Edward Kaufman and John R. Fields, charged with fixing the jury that freed Governor Small on conspiracy charges last year, according to attorneys for the three men.

The verdict proves that innocent men cannot be convicted of crime to further some one's political ambition," said a statement by defense counsel who contended throughout the trial, as did attorneys for Landin in his trial, that the prosecution was instigated by Attorney General Brundage for political "persecution of Governor Small and his associates."

Fountain Of Youth May Be Found In African Monkey

LONDON, July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The hope that these in search of the fountain of youth would find it in an African monkey colony, was expressed yesterday by Dr. Serge Voronoff, director of the experimental laboratory of the College of France, known for a decade for his work in gland transplantation.

He told nearly a thousand eminent physicians and surgeons from all over the world attending the sixth triennial congress of the International Surgical Society how the Pasteur Institute has constructed an immense park in Africa where it will breed chimpanzees, whose glands, he asserts are valuable in rejuvenating humans. He said that while African apes were so difficult to obtain, grafting operations necessarily would have to be limited, but he believed that the colony would place the elixir of youth within the reach of every one.

The conference also discussed the notable strides made last year toward conquering tuberculosis, diabetes, pneumonia, paralysis, rheumatism and even insanity, but in spite of all these remarkable advances, Sir Wm. Maclewin, president of the congress remarked regretfully "regarding nature as a whole, we are still in the deepest darkness."

He asked if there was not within every one a mystery which never has been fathomed. "If we pursue our quest with a single purpose in search of truth for truth's sake only," he added, "we may get a glimpse of the spirit of nature and feel the touch of the hand that weaves the web."

Noted surgeons also noted improved methods for alleviating human suffering by bone and skin grafting and cheapening and making more effective operations of all sorts.

French Believe Germany Can Pay And Will Be Forced To

PARIS, July 18.—The task of physical reconstruction in France is half done. Fully three billions of dollars have been spent in rebuilding homes, factories, highways and railroads, and the French government estimates that approximately three to four billions more are needed to finish the job.

Where does all this money come from—it is indeed a pertinent question and when you grasp its true significance you know why the French are in the Ruhr and why all the rest of the world calls the French policy one of stubbornness, yet why the people here are practically unanimous in upholding Premier Poincaré's foreign policies.

The French are thrifty people and always save from their earnings.

Patrons In Evening Dress As Raid Starts

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Fashionable New Jersey resorts which received a shock yesterday when raids netting $300,000 worth of liquor were made in Lakewood and Point Pleasant, got another jolt today when detectives swooped down on five alleged gambling casinos.

Gambling paraphernalia valued at $20,000 was confiscated and the proprietors of the five resorts were arrested but their names were withheld. Guests were not molested.

The raids were made by county detectives and state troopers.

The biggest place raided was at West End and was known as the New York Club. The raiders surprised thirty men and women in evening dress.

At Measure Bay, the raiders entered a road house noted for its shore dancers. In the rear of which a gambling house was found. The raiders confiscated three truck loads of roulette wheels and other gambling devices which were stored in Ashbury Park. Several attempts were made to recover some of the wheels, the truck drivers being offered $20 for each.

Mrs. Harding Much Better

SEWARD, ALASKA, July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—President Harding and three of his cabinet officers having visited the interior of Alaska, for five days, traveling more than 1,000 miles and conferring at every opportunity with people concerning their problems, were today again about the navy transport Henderson here awaiting their departure for Valdez.

Part of the president's time after his return here from Fairbanks, was occupied with a fishing trip to the Rouse River, while Mrs. Harding remained on the Henderson in quiet.

Doctors in attendance upon Mrs. Harding expressed their belief tonight that she was recovering her strength and that her fatigue, which caused the president to cancel a proposed automobile trip over the Richardson Highway, was yielding satisfactorily to treatment.

I. W. W. Ordered To Texas Port

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The majority of the Industrial Workers of the World at Los Angeles harbor, have been instructed to go as rapidly as possible to Port Arthur, Texas, where three members of the organization were said to have been killed recently, according to information the police stated they had obtained. Orders were said to have been brought here from I. W. W. headquarters in San Francisco for all "foot loose" members to report for the Texas port.

The harbor strike here is a week old, but operators declare it is not being felt to any great extent.

Reports from Port Arthur were that no I. W. W.'s had been killed there, but that the chief of police would receive the foot loose men with open arms and find them something to do.

War On Cleveland Slot Machines

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—In a letter to Paul M. Lamb, law director of Cleveland, Governor Denney today said he had received many complaints that slot machines vending gun and in some instances negotiable checks are being operated in Cleveland and that the Cleveland law director had given an opinion to Mayor Kohler holding such slot machines legal. Director Lamb was respectfully asked for a copy of his opinion to the mayor.

At the same time, the governor sent a telegram to a Cleveland newspaper editor advising him of the letter sent today to Mr. Lamb and saying that further action would be held in abeyance until an answer had been received.

Attention of the governor was called to the situation at Cleveland following the governor's announced policy of ridding the state of gambling and gambling devices. The governor took a decided stand against gambling in any form when he learned that one of his sons had lost a small amount of money in an illegal baseball pool.

Woman Engineers Jail Delivery

WARREN, PA., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Her features concealed beneath a black hood and flowing cape, a young woman late last night engineered single-handed, a daring jail delivery here, which freed Patrick Ponsoli, believed by authorities to be the woman's fiancé.

The woman forced an entrance to the sheriff's home while that official was absent and stole a pistol and the keys to the county jail. Then she went to the jail, locked more than a score of prisoners into a single tier, and released Ponsoli from a cell where he was held in solitary confinement.

With a sharp command to the remaining prisoners to "keep still," the masked woman fled with her "hostage."

Ponsoli had been held in $7,500 bail on a serious charge.

Ohio Motorists Must Dim Their Lights

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Ohio motorists tonight must resume the former practice of dimming headlights before passing an approaching vehicle or be subject to fines of $25 for the first failure to do so and from $50 to $100 for each subsequent violation.

The Police bill, passed by the last legislature to take the place of the "Lodge" law which provided that only certain types of lenses must be used, now requires that headlights must be dimmed when 200 feet away from an approaching vehicle so that no portion of the glaring rays are above a point 3 1/2 feet from the ground.

Other acts passed by the last legislature and which become effective today, are:

The Jones law, providing that appellate court must meet in each county only once each year instead of twice.

The Waite law giving mothers equal rights with fathers in the guardianship of children.

The Wise bill providing that banks having branches must pay separate examination fee of $50 for each branch.

The Jones bill permitting utilities corporations to issue non-par stock, which has not been allowed in the past.

The Kumbler bill providing for the instruction of children in county tuberculosis sanatoriums.

Great Field In Banking For Women

CLEVELAND, O., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—There is a great field in banking for women, according to Mrs. C. E. Hearin, of Clay, Ky., here attending the 21st annual convention of the American Institute of Banking. Mrs. Hearin is vice president of the Farmers' National Bank of that city.

"Women are better in matters of detail than men, although as a rule they are not such good executives," Mrs. Hearin said. Asked if she did not think women aren't a trifle too sympathetic, Mrs. Hearin said:

"The very thing we need is more sympathy. For instance a young man comes in for a loan, trying to get a start in life. I think we ought to be just as liberal with him as we can. Ten years from now he may be the biggest man in the community."

The bank of which Mrs. Hearin is an officer, was organized by her husband in 1907. He is the cashier of the institution and was left in charge during Mrs. Hearin's trip to Cleveland.

"Although I out-rank he is still the genius of the partnership."

Strike In Liverpool Blocks Ocean Shipping

LONDON, July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The development of a day in Liverpool of a serious phase of the dockers' strike, interfering with trans-Atlantic shipping from that port and stopping other traffic out of the Mersey, came as a set back to the hopes of peace held out here as the result of the executive body of the transport union having decided to call a conference in London of strikers from all the ports involved. This call followed preliminary negotiations at Manchester yesterday.

The critical state of the strike situation was indicated by the decision of the London Carriage Contractors, that unless the men return to work immediately, steps must be taken to safeguard London's food supply. Some prices, particularly those for fruits and vegetables, already are soaring. Lemons have increased 1,000 per cent and oranges 100 per cent in price and stocks of bananas are rotting in the harbor. The people here, have been warned that there is no justification for increases in the retail prices of other commodities.

The dock workers in Bristol, Avonmouth and Portland have received an appeal from the London strikers and the union officials there do not anticipate trouble. The men in other ports in Bristol Channel are at work. It is estimated that 30,000 men are on strike. The strike which began in Hull, July 12, was not authorized by the union leaders. It was started as a protest against a reduction in wages of one shilling per day through a national agreement.

Squabble Over Rule Threatens To Spread

MANILA, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, July 18.—(By the United Press)—Resignation of the Philippine cabinet was believed today by political observers to mean the end of hope of independence for the island in the immediate future. Whether the non-cooperation hinted by those resigning would spread beyond government circles was an interesting question.

The political upheaval is the greatest since the American occupation of the island and was due, according to the retiring cabinet members to General Wood's interference with civil matters.

In accepting the resignation of the eight Philippine ministers, General Wood said he considered their action as a challenge of his authority of government and hinted martial law may follow.

MANILA, July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The Philippine Islands and the city of Manila had virtually no native participation in the higher departments of their government today as a result of the resignation of four cabinet members, the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. The secretary of the interior and the mayor of Manila previously had resigned.

Insular administrative affairs were wholly in the hands of Governor General Leonard Wood and his American appointive assistants. He and his American aides must assume the whole burden of government until successors can be found for the resigned officials. So far Governor Wood has not officially indicated how he will meet the situation.

Yesterday's resignation followed all night and all day sessions of members of the various Filipino political groups, of the council of state and of the legislative council at the governor general's official residence, Malacan Palace. Led by Manuel Quezon, president of the senate, the officials marched into the office of the governor general and tendered their resignations in connection with which they made statements giving the reasons.

The reasons given consisted of objection to what the officials characterized as the governor general's policy and desire to intervene and control, even to the smallest details of government, both insular and local. In their view, the authority and responsibility of the department heads and other officials concerned, and which "policy recently culminated in an unfortunate incident which shook to its foundations the public opinion of the country when you, by undue interference with the powers and jurisdiction of the secretary of the interior and the mayor of Manila, reinstated a member of the secret service of the city who had been legally suspended from office and whose resignation you subsequently accepted on your own initiative. And, to make matters worse, you took this action without hearing the proper officials."

Replying to the statement, Governor General Wood accepted the resignation, although he said they came as a surprise and that he did so with regret. He also declared the action was not based on any previous protest of complaint and that it was wholly unwarranted. The resignations, the governor general added, came in the nature of threat, and challenge which he could not ignore, adding:

"It means an abandonment of your posts and obligations at a time of great responsibility and an alleged issues unsupported by evidence and unworthy of the attention of serious minded men."

Two N. & W. Men Burned By Steam

When a washout plug on a locomotive blew out on an N. & W. engine at the East Portsmouth roundhouse Tuesday, David Boggs, boilermaker, 708 1-2 John street and Isaac Fisher, boilermaker's helper, 3028 Gallia street, were showered with steam and sustained severe burns. Boggs was burned about the legs and Fisher was burned about the head, face, hands and legs. Both were removed to Hempstead hospital where they are getting along nicely.

The men had just reported for the night shift and were walking near the engine when the washout plug let go with approximately 150 pounds pressure. Fisher in an effort to run away from the cloud of steam ran into an iron pole and suffered a cut on his head. The blow on the head rendered him unconscious for a short time.

Machines Collide On Galena Pike; Both Badly Damaged

Machines driven by Harry Shaw of 1417 Spring street, and Paris Wright of Mr. Jay, collided on Galena pike at Hillcrest road, about eight o'clock last night. Shaw was accompanied by his wife and four children. Mrs. Shaw and daughter, Mary Jane, two years old, were thrown out of the machine but were not seriously hurt.

Shaw was driving north on the road and Wright was headed for Portsmouth. Shaw claims Wright was taking up most of the road and to avoid a collision ran his car off to the side of the paved road, but that Wright kept coming and crashed into his machine, which was damaged to such an extent that it had to be brought to the city by a wrecker.

Deputy Sheriff Eliza Carter went to the scene to investigate the accident but while searching around Nauvoo escaped in a machine driven by a friend who brought him to Portsmouth.

Shaw preferred charges of driving while intoxicated against Wright, who appeared at the sheriff's office Wednesday morning and made arrangements to have his father at the office tomorrow when the version of both drivers in the accident will be heard. Wright's machine was still at the scene of the accident this morning.

Robed Klansman Attends Local Meeting; Presents Speaker With A $100 Check

The first tangible evidence that the Ku Klux Klan actually existed in Portsmouth was disclosed Tuesday evening when at the close of a lecture in the High School a robed and hooded figure, a Klansman in full regalia, stalked down the aisle and presented the speaker with a check for $100, signed "Invisible Empire, Scioto County Ku Klux Klan," and further endorsed by the name of a citizen which the Klan refused to make public.

Dr. J. Montague Power, of Washington, D. C., a former secret service man, and at present a Methodist evangelist, was the speaker.

The meeting was a public one, held under the auspices of the local Klan. The demonstration reached its climax when the Klansman presented Rev. Power with the token from the local order.

The Klan's messenger stumbled and fell while leaving the platform by the back entrance, but was not injured.

The speaker in part said:

"If those who consciously oppose the Klan knew the principles and the foundation rock of this stupendous organization, their prejudice would vanish like ice in a summer's sun."

"Ministers of the gospel, if they would acknowledge the fact, would be recorded as members of the Klan to seventy-five per cent of their number in the United States."

"Preaching is different now from the preaching in the time of Paul. Conditions are different. Problems are different. The same methods will not hold good. Those who are modern in every way acknowledge that there is need of a different approach in converting people to the principles of Christianity, the same principles that stand behind the organization of the Ku Klux Klan."

"Unrest and distrust are prevalent. Everywhere there is this feeling. Rev. Power said, 'and it is attributed to the infernal foreign element that is immigrating into these United States. That element which every good American must acknowledge. Now is the time,' he pleaded, 'for all those who love this country and the principles for which it stands to come to the aid of those ideals.'

Ferdinand Donohoe of Ninth street was chairman of the meeting. In the absence of Rev. Gerald Culherson, First Christian Church pastor, W. D. Nickelson of Marietta, Ohio, representative of the Ohio Fellows Lodge Insurance Association, introduced the speaker.

The Gospel Quartette gave two selections preceding the address.

WELL MATCH HIM UP WITH SHIFTY

The Chillicothe News Advertiser says:

Wanted: A Chillicothe boxing idol. Portsmouth has one in Shifty Dando who proved the ironclad champion for Chillicothe fans in the matter of defeating Frankie Wells.

Now, Chillicothe is seeking an idol smasher for Portsmouth—and, sh-sh, we believe that he'll be uncarted.

No names will be mentioned at this time, but local followers of the game have in mind a strapping young man, who is without doubt, the leading athlete of the town.

At one time when in the service he was a champion boxer—and he's nothing else but at this time, for often he has trained local fighters for their bouts.

This young man is always in shape. He has a superb build, is clean cut, husky, fat and above all a clean liver. He neither smokes or chews and his only dissipation is swimming by the hour.

Everybody in town knows this fellow and likes him. He is a favorite now and should be entered in the ring, as it is hoped he will have a following that will put that of other boxers to shame. There's nothing he consents to a match with Dando.

Arrest Follows Collision

A man giving the name of William York, 1532 Mound Street, was taken to the police station and registered for investigation following an automobile collision at Sixth and Glover streets about nine o'clock Tuesday night.

Machines driven by Mrs. Ralph Campbell, 401 Offshore and York, figured in the collision. According to Mrs. Campbell who was driving north on Glover she was almost across the intersection and York's machine caught her right rear fender with sufficient force to turn her car around so it headed south. Mrs. Campbell was accompanied by her nephew Lester Schisler, son of Leslie Schisler. Although showered with broken glass from the windshield, Mrs. Campbell and nephew escaped serious injury.

Police were called and they took York to the police station. Both machines were considerably damaged.

New School For Friendship

Nile township is to receive a new and modern consolidated grade school structure, which is to be built just below Friendship. The building program adopted by the Nile township board of education is the result of condemnation orders issued by the state department of workshops and buildings. An inspection of the schools in the township brought orders from the state that the use of the buildings would be prohibited unless extensive repairs and alterations were made. The building at Elm Tree was ordered replaced, it being beyond repair.

The new school, to be fire-proof in structure, will take care of Elm Tree, Leatherswood, Bond Run and Friendship schools. Bonds in the amount of $38,000 are to be sold July 24 to provide funds for the building program. An addition and extensive repairs were ordered to the Friendship school. The board figured the cost of repairs and rebuilding of the one school would equal the cost of a new building and then decided on a new brick building of several rooms.

Grotto Pictures At Eastland

Monarch William F. Zottmann, of Yezdigord Grotto, was much relieved, Wednesday, when the motion pictures taken of the National Convention held in Cleveland, recently, were finally received by him and will be shown at the Eastland theatre, Thursday and Friday of this week. In all, there are 2000 feet of films, and they were taken under the supervision of the officials and are said to be exceptionally fine. The pictures taken will give close-up views of the National officers and the arrival of delegations from every state in the Union.

It had been planned to show the films on July 17, 18 and 19 and it was so advertised, but they were lost in transit and were not received by Monarch Zottmann until Wednesday. They will positively be shown tomorrow and Friday and there is no question but a large number of prophets and their families will avail themselves of the opportunity afforded. Monarch Zottmann hopes that every prophet will see these pictures for they will give a clear insight into the big things that were held in Cleveland, and will prove a treat not only to those who attended the convention, but those who did not. The crowd at the Eastland will no doubt be especially large on the two afternoons and evenings, particularly on Friday night, when the amateurs will hold forth. Manager Bob Wood stated that the program on Friday night will be especially good, for several new faces would be seen before the footlights and that the show would be the best yet put on by amateurs.

French Believe

the railroads of Italy and Southeastern Europe were built largely with French capital.

So when the French government needed money to advance to people who wanted to rebuild their homes in the devastated regions what was a more natural thing than to float a bond issue? The total amount of reparations bonds issued since the war approximates six billion dollars of which half has been used for war pensions and half to compensate those whose homes and factories were destroyed and to rebuild their railroads.

Fancy a liberty loan of six billion dollars in America and tell all those who purchased the loan from people of means down to shop girls and peasants that there's no chance of repaying to them the original value of the bonds. What would happen to any administration which permitted such a thing to happen? It would be turned out in the United States almost as quickly as it would be overturned here.

The French who hold reconstruction bonds know their government can't ultimately redeem these bonds unless Germany pays. Yet they are not worried because it may be a long tedious process nor are they inclined to rush into a cancellation of debts nor reduction of reparations accounts just because the present outlook is bad. The Frenchmen don't understand the art of writing off debts as uncollectible. They may have to wait a century for payment but he waits just the same and a debt, once on his books, will come off. His unit of thought is not a year but a generation.

So the French investor, feeling the utmost confidence in the government, expects it to pay interest regularly and to refund the present bonds with others when they mature and thus keep the thing going until Germany pays. The best evidence of the Frenchman's confidence in the government's ability to collect from Germany or to finance its own indebtedness is the fact that since the bond issues were floated the market price thereof remains virtually the same as when they were first sold to the public.

The French are not yet through. They must raise another three billion dollars to finish work in the devastated regions and still other billions for pensions. They will keep on floating bond issues. Anyone who supposes there is chaos in France's internal credit situation is much mistaken. The people are as sure that their government is solvent and will redeem the bonds as Americans are that the Liberty's will be redeemed when something like twenty-three billions of war debt still hangs over the treasury at Washington.

And while foreigners may be skeptical of Germany's paying power, the Frenchman entertains no such doubts but is confident that Germany can pay and will ultimately be compelled to do so.

Slot Machine

Several Ohio mayors have been ordered to stop slot machines and other forms of gambling in their bailiwicks or "get off the job."

The governor's letter to Mr. Lamb follows:
"Complaint has reached me that many thousands of slot machines are operating in your city. The explanation is made that they are vending machines, which sell small quantities of minis and in addition have gambling functions of sometimes returning negotiable chips. 'I have been informed that you have given a ruling to the mayor of Cleveland to the effect that these machines are lawful. May I respectfully request that you send me a copy of your ruling on this subject.'"

Churches Join Fight

CLEVELAND, O., July 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Church organizations were joining the anti-slot machine faction in council today in the inauguration of a crusade to compel city and state action in the closing of the "slot vending" machines from Cleveland.

Officers in charge of the investigation conducted by the federated churches have prepared affidavits showing the result of their investigation. The affidavits were said to have been sent to Columbus.

Meanwhile the city administration continued its "watchful waiting" policy despite the definitely asserted belief of many well versed in the city ordinances that Section 2722 of the city code rendering unlawful the sale of many articles through the medium of any game of chance or any plan, device or scheme where hazard is a constituent element, or where any gift or prize is offered as an inducement to purchasers, well covers the situation.

In view of the attitude taken on the entire controversy by Mayor Kohler and Law Director Lamb, no action was expected at this time on the Marshall resolution passed by council requesting that officials proceed under Section 2722 and make a test case.

Officials Fail To Break

Down Story; Moore Taken To Adams Co. To Face Spires

Clinging steadfastly to his story that he did not know Robert F. Morris, who was murdered in this county and whose dead body was carried into Adams county, where it was found June 16th last, Frank Moore was a cheerful, defiant prisoner in the county jail Wednesday. He was brought here late Tuesday night by Sheriff Harry Dunham, Moore being arrested in McRoberts, Ky., where he had been working several days ago.

Deputy Sheriff Walter White of Adams county left this afternoon for West Union and was accompanied by Moore, who will face Spires in the Adams county jail tonight.

Sheriff Dunham and Prosecuting Attorney Anselm Skelton grilled Moore for over an hour this morning but failed to break down his story that he did not know Morris and that he never left the city with John Spires, who is a prisoner in the Adams county jail and is being held in connection with the murder of Morris.

"I saw John Spires on Ninth street between Chillicothe and Gay on the night of May 26, and that was the last time we met," Moore told a Times man today as he sat in his cell with Sheriff Dunham and Prosecuting Attorney Skelton.

"I asked Spires where he got his big red auto and he said he had won a Chevrolet car in West Virginia and had traded it on the new car. That was the last I saw of Spires."

Asked if he were not related to Spires, Moore said they were second cousins. Moore admitted that he worked for the Gilbert Grocery company and for The Stockham company before leaving the city. He delivered ice for The Stockham company and was in the "receiving line" at the Gilbert wholesale grocery, explaining that he received goods from the trucks.

During the time he was being grilled, Moore smiled and answered all questions readily and cheerfully. "I had no connection with the killing of this man, Morris, and God above knows this is true. I left Portsmouth because I could make more money in McRoberts, Ky., and that is why I went there, goodness knows not because I was mixed up in the Morris killing. I never saw Spires again after we parted on Ninth street. I stayed at a hotel that night and I can prove this."

Sitting in a chair in the private office of Sheriff Dunham Wednesday morning, Moore told of his connection with Spires in his conversation with a Times reporter freely. He frequently brushed back his hair, with hands which had but a few minutes before been freed from the manacles which he had worn on the long journey to Portsmouth.

"Do you know John Spires?" was the reporter's first question.

"Yes, I know a John Spires," was his calm reply. "Whether I know the John Spires of whom you speak, I cannot say. I know one John Spires. 'Where does he live?' was the next question."

"I am not certain. I think he lives in Adams county," Moore replied.

"How long have you known him?" "Oh, for many years. I lived at his home for some time," was the answer.

"Moore, do you know of the crime with which Spires charges you?" the reporter queried.

"Only what I have been told, and I have gathered from reading," he promptly answered.

"Well, tell me about your last meeting with Spires, and anything else which you know about this case?" was the next question.

"I saw Spires on the night of Saturday, May 26, on Ninth street between Chillicothe and Gay. He was in a red car, and another man was driving. John introduced me to the other man, but I do not remember his name. He was a thickset man, older than either John or I," the prisoner said, and continued:

"Spires got out of the machine, which he said was his, and talked to me. He showed me a roll of bills and a revolver. He told me this fellow (referring to the man in the car with him), does not know I've got this gun. We talked pleasantly awhile, and parted. I never saw him again."

Spires, after he had found out that Moore was arrested, remarked, according to Deputy White, "By—, I will face Moore right here in jail and tell him the same story I have told the officers."

Moore's Early Life.
"I was born in Adams county," Moore said, after he had been taken to a washroom in the county jail and removed the stains of travel, returning to the sheriff's office.

"Most of my life, however, I spent in Portsmouth, where I call my home town. I've worked around at various jobs, and spent some time, once, with the Spires family, when I was 16 or 17 years of age. They were then living some place in West Virginia, and I boarded with them and worked in a mine."

"I never had any trouble with John Spires. I believe he is a little younger than I, but not much, and we were always 'buddies.'"

"I cannot imagine," the prisoner continued, "why I should be made the subject of such a story as John is telling. He can have no possible grudge against me."

"You could have knocked me down with a feather when the officers arrested me at McRoberts. I had no information that I would ever be arrested, for this is the first time in my life I have ever been in trouble."

"The officer and the mine foreman came to me and told me I was wanted."

"What for?" I asked.

"You know what for," the officer replied.

"I know nothing about it, I told them."

Moore stated at the jail that he was 23 years old yesterday. He said his parents, Robert and Alice Moore, who formerly lived on Turkey Creek about three miles from Friendship, were dead. He has one sister, Miss Cora Moore of Wheelersburg, a halfbrother, George in West Virginia, and a full brother, George, who is in the U. S. Army.

According to word from West Union today, Spires still clings to his original story that Morris was killed by two Portsmouth bootleggers.

WEST UNION, O., July 18.—(Special to The Times).—The murder of Robert F. Morris, which has been occupying the attention of the officials of Adams and Scioto counties since the finding of Morris' decomposed body along the banks of Brush Creek, June 16, took an unexpected turn yesterday, when authorities let it be known that they are of the opinion that the slaying occurred in Adams county, despite the statement of John Spires, who is being held in the Adams county jail, and who said that the killing took place in Scioto county, near Ostrander.

The basis for the officers' opinion that the crime may have been committed in Adams county is voiced in the statement of one man interested in the case, who said yesterday: "I am inclined to believe that Spires said the crime was committed in Scioto county because, on a previous experience of his, when he was arrested and tried in the wrong county, the charge was dropped, and he was able to get away."

The case referred to, this investigator states, occurred about the latter part of February.

Spires, it is alleged, was arrested for stealing tobacco from a man by the name of B. Mitchell, who lives in Scioto county, just this side of the Adams county line.

The arrest, it is claimed, was made in Adams county and Spires hauled into the court of Squire J. P. Jackson of Peebles.

When it developed that the tobacco had been taken from Mitchell's barn in Scioto county, the case was dismissed, it is said, and no further charge placed against Spires, since the tobacco warehouse at Batavia, where the lot had been sold, paid Mitchell for the tobacco.

"Shortly after this experience Spires left for Mann, W. Va., where he went to work February 23," the investigator said, "and we are inclined to believe that, because of this experience, Spires thought he might get out of the present trouble by claiming that the crime was committed in Scioto county and getting the case tried there."

Suit Filed To Smash Alleged "Harvester Trust"

WASHINGTON, July 18 (By the Associated Press).—Separation of the International Harvester Company into at least three distinct corporations, with wholly separate owners, stockholders and officials, was demanded by Attorney-General Daugherty in a petition filed in the Federal District Court at St. Paul, Minnesota.

Such a step is necessary, the Attorney-General's petition declared, because the dissolution decree originally entered against the company in 1918 had proved "inadequate" to break up restraint of trade and restore competition in the production of harvesting machinery and other farm implements.

The Court was asked by the petition to enter a new decree holding that the harvester company "still is a combination in restraint of interstate trade and commerce in harvesting machinery, and still is monopolizing and attempting to monopolize said trade and commerce in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law and contrary to the several opinions, orders and decrees of this Court."

Unless steps are taken to effect a real dissolution, the petition continued, "the monopolistic control, exercised by the defendant, will increase and the vision of complete monopoly which the organizers of the company had in 1902, will be completely realized" to the detriment of farmers of the country in their purchases of farm machinery.

Competition Claimed

CHICAGO, July 18.—Prices of harvesting machinery are the result of vigorous competition, which the Sherman law was enacted to preserve, and are fairly comparable with the price of other implements fixed by normal competition, Alexander Legge,
President of the International Harvester Company, said today in a statement commenting on the Government suit against the company filed in Federal District Court at St.
Paul.

The suit, Mr. Legge said, is a continuation of the Government action begun 11 years ago. The harvester company, he said, was acquired by Court findings and the Attorney-General's admission of any wrongful dealings of unfair practices, but in 1918 a decree was entered to insure fullest competition, requiring the company to sell to competitors and limiting sales representatives to a single dealer in any one city. That decree, he said, provided the end of a test period which has now expired, the Government must ask the Court to determine whether the free competition contemplated by the Sherman anti-trust law exists in the farm implement industry. This step the Government is now taking, the statement said, and continued:

"As we understand it, the sole issue raised by the present petition relates to competitive conditions with respect

Killifer Suspended; Stengel Fined

NEW YORK, July 18.—William
Killifer, manager of the Chicago Cubs, today was suspended for three days by John A. Heydler, president duct in yesterday's contest with the

he had fined Casey Stengel, outfielder was charged with making about a visiting club official during the game of July 13. Pittsburgh was at the

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I have been reading your letters and seeing you have helped so many young people in trouble. I am coming to you for help. Now, Dolly, I am married and my husband runs around quit a bit. He goes out every night and stays until one and two o'clock. Now, Dolly, I never leave my house unless he is with me and so you see I don't go very much and he goes and stays so late and it worries me. Don't you think he should stay home once in a while? He doesn't even stay home when I am sick. Dolly, I am young but I know what it would mean if I would run around, so I will wait for you to offer your suggestion and then I will see what I can do. Answer my letter right away as I am worried.

WORRIED WIFE.

I think married men should stay at home unless they have business that takes them out occasionally. A man has no right to get married and then expect to run around the same as he did before he got married. If he does not want to settle down to a certain life he should stay single, and if he refuses to "settle" there should be a law passed to make him "stay put" or stay at home certain nights out of the week, or come in at a reasonable hour when he does go out. Of course I think a girl should find out what kind of a man she is getting, something about his habits, and what kind of company he keeps. If you knew he kept late hours and run around with bad company before you married him, you can't expect to tame him all of a sudden. You will probably have to let him "run wild" until he decides to settle down, or find out some way of entertaining him at home when you can't go out with him. You might have friends come in, or arrange for little parties to spend an evening together either at home or elsewhere. If you have coaxed him to stay at home, and failed, I suppose you will have to hand on him and give him a piece of your mind. There is something wrong somewhere when a bride can't hold her husband at home, so it might be a good idea for you to sit down and take an inventory of yourself and see why you can't hold yours.

Dear Miss Wise—We are two girls from Kentucky and our ages are 15 and 16. We are in love with two boys that live real close to us. Their ages are 18 and 19. We are deeply in love with them. They have asked us to marry them. They are real nice boys. Do you think we are too young to get married or should we make other friends which we are doing. We have dark brown hair, grey and brown eyes. Do you think we are good looking? Everybody around here calls us statues. Just what do they mean by saying that? Dolly, what length should we wear our dresses?

MABEL AND CLOTINE.

You are not in love with the boys—You just think you are, and they are probably kidding you along when they ask you to marry them, as they know that girls and boys must be 21 years of age before they can get married in Kentucky without their parents' consent, and the same age in Ohio after tomorrow. You are too young to go with one boy all the time, and it might be a good idea to make other friends as you suggest. If people call you a statue you probably look like a dead one. Wear your dresses about twelve or fourteen inches from the ground. I can't pass on your beauty unless I see you.

Dear Dolly—I am a little girl ten years of age and I would like for you to tell me which side to part my hair on.

Part it on whichever side it looks best. Some part it on the right side, others the left. You could have bangs and not part it at all if you want to.

ANXIOUS BOY.

I will give your name and address to any who ask for it.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

THE LITTLE PEEZERS

"What's this funny thing?" they cried.

THE next place in Rainbow Land was where the Little Peezers lived.

When Mr. Sky Bow brought Nancy and Nick to this queer place, they almost stepped on six of them before they knew they were there.

Before you could sneeze the Little Peezers began to crawl up Nancy's legs and Nick's legs and Mister Sky Bow's legs and to run all over them like ants, for they weren't any bigger than ants, really.

"Oh, look!" cried one. "Look what I've found! What do you s'pose it's for?"

It was Nick's pocket, my dears, that the curious little fellow was poking into.

Instantly a hundred of them toppled down in and pretty soon on they came dragging Nick's knife.

"What's this funny thing?" they cried.

Nick took it carefully so as not to crush any of them and showed them how the blades opened.

"What's it for?" they wanted to know.

"To cut with," said Nick.

At the same time a hundred more of the Little Peezers had jumped down into Nancy's open pocket and hauled out her scissors.

"What are these funny things for?" they wanted to know. They had to yell with all their might, so Nancy could hear them.

"They are to cut with," she answered.

"Ooooo! Eeee!" screamed all the Little Peezers, dropping Nick's knife like a hot potato, and dropping Nancy's little scissors like a hornet's nest. "These people are butchers!"

And they scrambled down off the Twins' shoulders and arms and hands, and every place they had found a toe hold for their tiny little feet—and they slid down their legs and squeaked away so fast that in two seconds and three quarters there wasn't a single Little Peezer left.

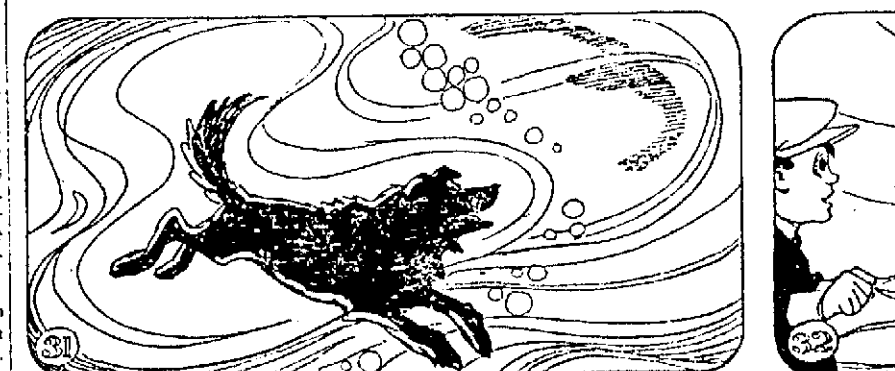

"Oh, I'm so sorry we scared them," said Nancy.

"We'll leave a lump of sugar for them," said Mr. Sky Bow. "They love it."

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES — UNDER THE SEA

Right down near the bottom of the sea Jack's faithful pet dog had come upon a school of dog fish. They seemed glad to see Flip and seemed glad to see them, and Jack looked on with interest while Flip ran around in circles playing with several of the queer little fish.

Soon the dog fish darted up high into the water and Flip was left alone. Then Jack again turned the sea horses and was on his way again. They had traveled but a short distance when the horses swam right into a big net. It all happened so suddenly that Jack, too, was caught.

At first the young adventurer was startled for, all about him, were numerous fish trying their best to get out of the net. Jack knew that fishermen were above and would soon pull the net up and kill all of the fish. He had to find some way to save them, he thought. (Continued.)

BEGIN HERE TODAY
 Mark Brendon, criminal investigator, is engaged by Jenny Pendau to solve the mystery of the disappearance of her husband, Michael. Michael is last seen in the company of Jenny's uncle, Robert Redmayne. Robert roams at large and sends for his brother Bendigo to come to a secret hiding place in a cave. Bendigo and Robert disappear and the cave shows evidence of a terrible struggle.

Jenny marries Bendigo, Doria, who works for Bendigo, and they go to live in Italy, where Jenny's uncle, Albert Redmayne, lives. Peter Gann, famous American detective, is a close friend of Albert and he assists Brendon in the investigation.

Doria is arrested for murder and when he tries to escape is shot at by an Italian policeman. Doria is killed when she throws herself in front of her husband and receives the bullet meant for him.

Doria writes a long confession of his guilt.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
 He tells how he and Jenny, because of their hatred of the girl's mother, plan to kill each other in turn, partly for revenge and partly to satisfy their peculiar criminal instincts.

CHAPTER XIX
A Legacy for Peter Gann
 If at any time I entertained one shadow of regret in the execution of those who had traduced me and so earned their destruction, it was after we had dwelt for a season with Albert Redmayne beside Coma. But Jenny swiftly laughed me out of these emotions.

"Keep your tenderness and sympathy for me," she said. "I will not share them."

We might have killed Albert a thousand times and left no sign—a fact that brings me to that part of my recital I most deplore.

Nevertheless, though things difficult and dangerous we had triumphantly achieved, before this task for

ECZEMA ON SCALP 4 YEARS

In Pimples. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Healed.

"I was troubled with eczema on my scalp for about four years. It first broke out in patches of little red pimples, which later scaled over and itched so badly that I could not sleep at night. My scalp was so sore that I could hardly comb my hair, and my hair kept falling out and looked dead."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and in two months I was healed. (Signed) Miss Lucille Martin, St. Nebo, Ill."

that I have handed it over to the police orphanages of my country and yours in equal proportions.

The facts are these. As the day approached for his execution, extraordinary precautions were taken, but Bendigo had no trouble and made no threat. Having completed his written statement, he asked to be permitted to copy it on a typewriter, but leave to do so was not granted. He kept the communication on his person and he was promised that he would be permitted to read it should be made until after his execution. Indeed, he received this undertaking before he was put to prison. He preserved a quiet and orderly manner, ate well, took exercise with his guards and smoked many cigarettes. I may mention that the body of Robert Redmayne was found where he buried it; but the rides have deflected the beach graves of Bendigo's grave and search there has revealed nothing.

MAKES THE DEAF HEAR

New Invention Aids Thousands

Here's good news for all who suffer from deafness. The new "Hear" device, a remarkable device which has enabled thousands of deaf persons to hear as well as ever. The makers of this wonderful device say it is too much to expect you to believe this so they are going to give you a chance to try it at home. They offer to send it by prepaid parcel post on a ten-day free trial. They don't want a cent, but they require no deposit—there is no obligation. They send it entirely at their own expense and risk. They are making this extraordinary offer well knowing that the magic of this little instrument will so amaze and delight the user that the chances of its being returned are very slight. Thousands have already accepted this offer and report most gratifying results. There is no danger and no loss of time. You can hear the mental and physical strain which comes from a constant effort to hear. Now you can make a change to hear without that feeling of weariness from which all deaf persons suffer. Now you can take your place in the social and business world to which your talents entitle you, and from which your affliction has, in a measure, excluded you. Just send your name and address to the Hearn Products Corporation, Suite 122, 230 W. 42nd St., New York, for descriptive literature and request.

burning. Suddenly he gave a sigh and held out his hand to the man on his right.

"See that goes to Peter Gann—it is my legacy," he said. "And remember that Mark Brendon is my heir." He then put a small object into the waiter's hand. At the same time he apparently suffered a tremendous physical convulsion, uttered a groan and lay up into a sitting position. From this he fell forward unconscious. One attendant supported him and the other ran for the prison surgeon. But Pendau was already dead—poisoned with cyanide of potassium.

You will remember two facts which might have thrown light upon his secret. The first was his accident in Italy as a youth; the second your constant interest in a peculiar, inhuman quality of his personality, which you were never able to understand. Both are now explained. He had, of course, a secret receptacle upon his person beyond human knowledge or power of discovery; for he says that only his mother knew of his accident. That accident was the loss of an eye. Behind an eye of glass that took its place had lain a tiny, deadly, until he required it, the capsule of poison found crushed within his mouth after death.

What the published statement of this knave has done for me you will guess. I am leaving the detective service and have found other occupation. One can only seek to live down my awful experience. Next year my work will bring me to America and what that happens I don't very much care. You should permit me to do so—not that I may speak of the past with all its futility and bitterness for me but that we may look forward and that I may see all in well with you in your days of retirement honor and ease. Until then I subscribe myself, your admirer and faithful friend,

Mark Brendon.

Peter opened his parcel.

It contained an eye made of glass and very exquisitely fashioned to imitate reality. Its prevailing darkness had prevented the truth from appearing, and yet, somehow, the false thing had given to Pendau's expression a quality that never failed to disturb Peter.

TELLTALE SYMPTOMS OF WOMAN'S ILLS
 Every woman who suffers from backache, headache, dragging-down pulch, nervousness, irregularities, displacements, irritability, or depression, should recognize in such symptoms some derangement of her system which should have attention before some serious ailment develops. These conditions are often evidenced by a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude and sleeplessness. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been preeminently successful in overcoming such conditions, and it is now recommended everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

Hawk was elected president at the Area Convention last winter.

Eck Dismissed
 Theodore Eck, Mahert Road young man, charged with reckless driving, was dismissed, following a hearing in Municipal court Tuesday for lack of convincing evidence.

The complaint against the young man grew out of a collision which occurred Sunday at Gallia and Mahert Road, between automobiles driven by him and Vess Clark of Rhodes avenue, New Boston. Both machines were considerably damaged and the court, after hearing the evidence, was of the opinion that it was a case for civil action for damages.

M. E. Outing Friday

Extensive arrangements have been made for the homecoming and picnic to be conducted under the auspices of the Portsmouth district of the Methodist church Friday at Beechwood Camp on the Little Scioto river. All Methodist ministers and laymen and their friends are invited to join in the celebration. Music for the event will be furnished by the Trinity Orchestra under the direction of Miss Alice Blake.

Concerning the picnic and homecoming the current issue of the Portsmouth District Evangel carries the following:

"The place? Say, you'll be tickled pink when you see it. Just imagine a beautiful grove of fine trees, cool and shady, on the edge of the Little Scioto river, with plenty of grass to stretch out on. Imagine too, a large bungalow with big porches to sit on. And all this located where it can be easily reached. Wouldn't that be ideal? Well, that's just the place that has been secured. It is known as Beechwood Camp and is the property of Mr. Ben Stewart, a prominent member of Manly Church, Portsmouth.

He is most anxious to have us come to his camp, and will do everything possible to make it an enjoyable occasion. It is located on the Little Scioto river not far from Sciotoville. Though within the corporation of Portsmouth, it is out in the quiet open country. It is seven miles from the Portsmouth postoffice, and there is a hard road all the way. The surroundings are clean, and sanitary and there is good, cold drinking water on the ground.

"The attractions? Well, first, swimming. Oh, boy, that will sound good on a hot July day. There is a bath house near the water. Horse shoe courts in the shade of the trees. A baseball diamond for the athletically inclined. A boat for rowing. And the greatest attraction of all, of course, is the opportunity to visit with one another and renew old friendships.

"Provision will be made for the children. Some one will be ready to direct them in games, there are two fine swings, and they will be sure to have a good time. Mothers with babies or small children will find a suitable place in the bungalow to care for them.

"Doesn't all this sound interesting? You'll be sorry if you miss it. Take the train, the interurban, the motor bus; crank up the Packard or the 'tin Lizzie'; if there's no other way, borrow a horse and ride it; but get there somehow. All you former pastors will want to see the people you ministered to in years gone by. You folks who were raised in the district will want to meet the folks you used to know. You people of the district will want to greet your former pastors and old friends. The pastors of the district will do their utmost to show everybody a good time. If you live in the district you'll pack your baskets with enough for your own family and for the visitors from out of the district.

"Don't forget the date! Friday, July 20. Let's make this homecoming and basket dinner the greatest time Portsmouth district has ever known. What do you say?"

Amplifiers Are Banned By Bishop

NEW YORK, July 18 — Bishop William T. Manning has ordered removed from the high altar of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine a $9,000 receiver for a system of amplifiers, declaring the installation was "carrying modernism a bit far. He made no objection to the system as a whole.

Sunday Schools Hold Big Meeting

The Tri-Township Sunday School convention met at Harrison church Sunday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance. The following program was rendered:

Opening Remarks—Rev. Russell Milam.

Invocation—Rev. J. H. Hughes.

Address to Sunday School Teachers—Rev. William Sheppard.

Duet—"That's the Fashion"—F. T. Fox and R. A. Newberry.

Living Outside the Kingdom—Rev. Charles Meenich.

Missionary Work—Rev. William C. Haas.

Benediction—Rev. Overstreet.

The program was interspersed with a number of songs by the choir in which the congregation participated.

Rev. Sheppard began his address by reading Ephesians 11 chapter. Addressing the Sunday School teachers he said that the Sunday School work should be their foremost work. Its chief end is character formation, since character is necessary to withstand the storms of life. The teacher's first aim should be to win the young folks to Jesus Christ, not by worldly means, but by the means laid down in God's word, the speaker declared.

Rev. Meenich made a very forceful address, declaring "it is impossible to teach in Sunday School without salvation," and saying that his own conversion occurred at a log school house in Kentucky. If more Bibles were worn out," he said,

Revoke Charters Of Miners' Union

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 18.—International President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday notified the officers of District No. 26, at Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, that the charter of the district has been revoked by him effective yesterday for refusal of the officers to call off the strike of miners at that place.

All officers and board members of the district are automatically deprived of their offices and a provisional district created to function under the direct authority of the International Union. Silby Barrett, of Glace Bay, was designated Provisional President. Instructions will be issued, according to Mr. Lewis's communication, for all striking miners

Miss Welty Attending The Meeting Of The Professional Women's Clubs At Portland

This week at Portland, Oregon, the business and professional women from every state in the Union are meeting for their annual national convention. Miss Estelle Welty is the representative from the Portsmouth Club and she writes a very interesting letter of the convention.

"Friday evening we met at the Convention Hall and, after a few words of greeting by the President, a great pleasing-toned pipe organ pealed forth the strains of one song after another as each state group individually came up from the back entrance and had its list of new clubs read and the charter given out. Each state carried its symbolic banner and sang a song, some gave yells, and the Oklahoma delegation dressed mostly in khaki-colored apparel, wearing a hand about their heads and a great feather, giving some Indian girls.

Oho, is here 91 strong. We marched forward carrying a flag and we certainly were applauded. And can you guess the great thrill that came to me as I was one of the number to step out and say "Thank you" when Portsmouth sounded out before that body of two or three thousand women! And I received our charter which will be forwarded to you soon.

After each state had marched down to the front, the president called for any Canadian Business Women and a large delegation came forward, carrying the Stars and Stripes and the British flag in the same hand, side by side. I cannot put on paper the solemn thrill that held us. Then the president said that this was only the beginning of a great federation of the Business and Professional women of all the nations who would soon meet in a great international meeting for Peace and Prosperity for the world."

Steel Co. Defends "Pittsburg Plus" As Price Fixing Plan

WASHINGTON, July 18 — The presentation of evidence in the "Pittsburg Plus" case was completed yesterday with the filing before the Federal Trade Commission of the balance of their defense by the United States Steel Corporation and its subsidiaries. Final hearing by the commission on its complaint against the practice in fixing steel prices is expected to be held early in August.

A number of Western States, including Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin, have intervened in the case on the side of the commission. The complaint charges that the method of fixing quotations for steel by adding to the Pittsburg base price, the freight rates from that city to consuming points, regardless of where it is manufactured, constitutes unfair competition.

Chiropractors Released

COLUMBUS—Roscoe L. Ford and Ellis W. West, chiropractors, released from Franklin county jail after serving 100 days. They were fined $100 each on April 7, for practicing medicine without license, but chose to go to jail.

CRIME RAMPANT IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 18.—Gunsmen, highwaymen and lesser brands of trouble makers combined yesterday to keep the police on the jump. Entries on the police headquarters' blotter included:

Three shooting affrays as a result of which two men are expected to die.

Hold-up and theft by bandits disguised as policemen and detectives of a truck carrying $80,000 worth of silk.

Delated announcement of a $75,000 silk truck robbery that occurred Saturday.

Assault and robbery of two pedestrians.

Attack by a crazed negro subway passenger which sent scores rushing for safety.

This Shows Reds Have Edge On Giants

John McGraw's team still has 34 games to play at home and 38 on the road. From this it is noted the Reds have 10 more home games than the Giants and seven less in journey country. And the Giants' team this year as the Redlegs.

The Reds have a total of 52 games, both at home and on the road, to play with the four second division teams and 24 with the Giants, Pirates and Cubs, first division clubs.

The Giants have 36 games left with the first division teams and only 37 with the four trailing clubs. This gives the Reds 12 more so-called easy games than the Giants have, while the Giants have 13 more games that can be expected to be hard ones than the Reds have to play.

Of course, it may not work out like this, but the season is more than half gone and the teams have graded themselves pretty well. New York's row seems harder from every angle than that of the Reds.

Wilson To Fight

NEW YORK, July 18.—Johnny Wilson of Boston, middleweight champion, formally notified the commission that he had accepted the challenge of Harry Greb of Pittsburgh for a title match. The commission thereupon approved August 31 as the date on which the bout might be held at the Polo Grounds.

Denies Rumor

NEW YORK, July 18.—Colonel Jacob Ruppert, president and sole owner of the New York Yankees, today daily denied newspaper reports that Harry Frazee, theatrical man, who recently disposed of his majority interest in the Boston Red Sox, would become associated with Ruppert.

"I own every share of the New York Yankees stock," Colonel Ruppert said, "and I have no intention of selling any of it. There is nothing to the reports that Mr. Frazee will become a part owner."

Market News

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 18—Initial gains were considerably extended in the first half hour's transaction with the motor and motor accessory shares leading in the rise. Jersey Central rose 2½, United Drug, Matheson Alkali, Atlantic Gulf preferred and Nash Motors 1½ to 2 and American Can, Reynolds Spring, Stewart-Warner, Stromberg, Maxwell "A", White Motors, American Woolen 1 to 1½ points. Foreign exchanges opened irregularly.

Activities of speculative pools were responsible for the early impetus to prices with the demand spreading to a wide assortment of industrials and specialties before noon. Rail shares were quiet, yesterday's late upturn apparently having exhausted possibilities in that quarter. The substantial character of the upward movement in popular industrials reflected the large short interest outstanding and pointed to a scarcity of stocks at current prices. Kresge jumped 1½ points and Maxwell Motors "C" Manulana Power, Matheson Alkali, Eastern Chemical, Utah Copper, Possum Coal and Consolidated Clear extended their gains 2 to 2½ points each. Call money opened at five per cent.

Absence of disquieting news from abroad and favorable technical conditions influenced moderate operations by pools in today's stock market. The buying however, as confined largely to representative industrial and specialties. Sales approximated 330,000 shares.

The closing was firm.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, July 18—Wheat scored a sharp advance in price today during the early dealings, according to some cases 2½c a bushel. The sudden rise was largely due to hurried active purchasing in part of previous sellers who were nervous over concerted efforts being made to lift values. Unusual publicity given to the movement urging investors to "buy 1,000 bushels of wheat" and housewives to "buy a barrel of flour" received special notice in this connection. Besides there was an evident falling off in the volume of rural offerings of wheat. Opening prices which ranged from 7½ to 7½ higher with September 97½ to 97½ and December 100 to 100½ were followed by advances that took September up to 97½.

Corn and oats advanced with wheat. After opening ¼ to ½ higher. September 70½ to 70½, the corn market continued to strengthen.

The close was unsettled 1½ to 2½ net gain, Sept. 70½.

Oats started ¼ to ¾ up September 34½ to 34½. Later a material gain took place. Lower quotations on hogs eased the provision market.

The close was unsettled at ¾ to ¾ net gain, Sept. 70½.

WEEKLY SUMMARY OF HARDWARE MARKETS

NEW YORK, July 18—Hardware Age in its weekly market summary will say tomorrow:

"Jobbers and retailers generally concur in the belief that the price peak in the hardware market has been reached, but they are nevertheless following a policy of cautious buying for fall and winter merchandise."

"The usual summer slackness is being felt in jobbing centers, and no large volume of wholesale business is expected until after Labor day. Dealers are buying in small lots for immediate requirements only."

Two Nations Under One Flag

For the first time in history British troops marched in an American Independence Day parade, when, at Portland, Ore., recently, British marines from H. M. S. Curlew participated. They are shown here saluting President and Mrs. Harding, who witnessed the history-making event. A special dispensation was granted by the War Department to permit a foreign armed guard to march through an American street. In his speech the president expressed the hope that heretofore representatives of the British navy always would march alongside of American troops in "processions of peace."

Daniel W. Williams On Clemency Board

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—Daniel W. Williams, Jackson newspaper publisher, and a candidate for governor, today was named to the clemency board, created by the last legislature to handle all paroles from state penal institutions. Russell is a democrat. The new clemency law providing for a board of two members, became effective yesterday.

It is expected that Governor Donahay will appoint an advisory board of two members, one democrat and one republican, to sit with the new clemency board.

McAdoo Testifies In Morse Trial

WASHINGTON, July 18.—For nearly 2 hours yesterday William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, occupied the witness stand in Federal Court here and detailed his relations, as counsel, with Charles W. Morse, the shipping operator on trial for alleged war frauds against the government.

Reports that his appearance would be accompanied by important disclosures, packed the courtroom and spectators but for the most part Mr. McAdoo had a special experience as a witness for the defense. He gave his evidence calmly and there were few clashes between government and defense attorneys. His brief cross-examination, by District Attorney Gordon bore somewhat into the relations of the Wilson administration, but developed few facts which had not been disclosed in previous testimony.

BROOKHART SAYS RUSSIA WAS MOST STABLE GOVERNMENT NEXT TO U. S.

NEW YORK, July 18 (By the Associated Press).—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, of Iowa, back from a ten-week survey of agricultural conditions in Europe, today declared that the election to the Senate of Magnus Johnson, of Minnesota, was a warning to the Republican bosses that something was about to happen in the political situation of the United States.

Senator Brookhart, a Republican, who was elected with the support of the Farmer-Labor bloc to the seat previously held by Senator William S. Kenyon, in his first public statement since his return to the United States, touched on the presidential situation, asserting that he had read only three of the speeches which President Harding has delivered on his tour. Mr. Brookhart said:

"I should think that about three more speeches like these would elect Henry Ford by about 10,000,000 majority, if the President is a candidate. It is time the Republican party was looking for a candidate who will fight for the common people and against Wall Street. Someone like Judge Kenyon should be drafted for this purpose."

Elsewhere in his statement the Senator declared that the Russian Soviet Government was second in stability only to that of the United States and that Russia would soon be making inroads upon the grain markets of this country.

"The thing that demands immediate attention is an extra session of Congress is the agricultural situation," said the Senator. "A good crop is coming all over Europe. The Russian peasants have a good crop and likely a large surplus."

"The farmers of the United States need to know these facts above all others. When it is known, it is plain that the Leninist bill and other legislation passed at the last session are flimsy makeshifts and wholly inadequate for agricultural needs."

Says Soviet is Stable.

"Russia today has the most stable Government in the world next to the

Missing Girl May Be In Swamp

WAUSAU, WIS., July 17.—Efforts to locate Mary Lawando, 20, who has been missing from her living quarters here since the night before her stepmother, Mrs. William Lawando, was attacked and beaten by some one who entered her home and fled after setting the bed clothing afire, were redoubled yesterday.

Sheriff Arthur Stewart was advised late last night that a woman answering the description of the girl was seen by a railroad section crew, a short distance from the Lawando home. The crew members said the woman emerged from the woods at one edge of the swamp, looked about for a time and then turned back into the heavier growth skirting one edge of the swamp.

Under Sheriff Louis Hinrich went to the place and found a trail which he followed some distance before it became lost in the heavier underbrush.

Considerable doubt has been expressed that anyone can live for any length of time in the tangle of underbrush and ooze. Mosquitoes and flies have made life a burden to those who have gone into the swamp. However, Mary was reared on the edge of the swamp and is said to know more about it than any other person in this section. Several years ago she went into the swamp and lived there for a considerable time.

Mrs. Lawando, who was removed from a hospital to her home late yesterday, was much improved today. She declared she did not believe Mary was the person who attacked her.

Harding Makes No Comment

CURRY, ALASKA, July 18 (By the Associated Press).—News of the election of Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor candidate, to the Senate from Minnesota, over Governor Preus, was received by President Harding yesterday, when his special train was stopped here for breakfast.

The Chief Executive read the Associated Press dispatches saying Governor Preus had conceded his defeat and giving returns from about half of the state, but he would make no comment on the grounds that the voters had spoken and any statement from the President would be unseemly.

It was obvious that the President was greatly disappointed.

To Probe Canton Phone Service

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—(By the Associated Press).—The State Public Utilities Commission, upon its own initiative, will begin an investigation August 6, of the telephone service in Canton to determine what steps shall be taken to improve the service there. The investigation will be held in Canton.

The commission also announced that it expects to send its inspectors into Akron within a short time to investigate the telephone service there and also to check up on the plant equipment in connection with the rate case now pending before the commission.

Buy Flour And Bread To Help The Wheat Market

CHICAGO, July 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Urging the housewife to buy a barrel of flour, the general public to purchase individually 1,000 bushels of wheat for future delivery and everybody to eat one more slice of bread daily, a plan to combat dropping wheat and flour prices has been introduced by George E. Mayer, president of the American Grain Company and is advocated by commission houses and grain men here.

July wheat yesterday tumbled to 95.38 here. Flour dropped fifteen cents a barrel, with spring patents in the retail trade quoted at 8.55 in small lots and winter wheat flours from $5 to $6.

The sentimental effect of the purchase of 1,000 bushels of wheat by 100,000 persons would tend to stabilize the market and restore the fallen confidence of grain operators, grain men declared, advocating that feature of the plan as the most important. Another 100,000,000 bushels might be disposed of to manufacturers of farm implements and automobiles, whose business to a certain extent is affected by the prosperity of the farmer, the plan proposed.

The beneficial advantages of increasing daily bread rations by one slice for each person in the United States would augment the psychological effect on the market caused by the increased demand for bread, proponents of the plan explained.

Mrs. Johnson May Take Care Of Farm While Husband Goes To Senate

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 18.—(By the Associated Press).—When Magnus Johnson goes to Washington to take his seat in the United States Senate, he may go alone. Mrs. Johnson has not yet made up her mind as to whether she will accompany him, as there is the farm to look after.

"Looking after things" on the Johnson 140 acres at Kimball, has been Mrs. Johnson's contribution to her husband's campaign. He says that by assuming that responsibility and leaving him free to make his campaign, she "put him over."

Mrs. Johnson does not take any such credit to herself. Mrs. Johnson is not interested in women in politics; she says she never had time to worry much about such things. She is a quiet, plain sort of woman. She says very little.

She was born on a farm near Kimball adjoining that on which she now lives. She has never lived anywhere else. Her father was born in Maine, the eve of publication of the British note to Germany. Beaverbrook, a Canadian by birth, is one of the most powerful figures behind the scene of British politics, having helped to make and unmake many prime ministers and their governments.

"Britain Should Clear Out Of Europe"

LONDON, July 18.—(By the United Press).—Great Britain should clear out of Europe and let France settle her account with Germany by her own methods, Lord Beaverbrook, proprietor of the London Express, declared in a statement today on

Demands Special Congress To Save Wheat Farmer

ST. PAUL, MINN., July 18.—(By the United Press).—Senator-elect Magnus Johnson, of Minneapolis, today joined Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, in a demand that a special session of congress be called to save the wheat farmer from ruin by low prices.

Johnson also announced that he is considering calling a conference of senators and congressmen from wheat states to discuss the situation which he fears will result in national calamity.

"The proposed special congress should establish minimum wheat price and other wise correct the agricultural situation," he declared.

Ganna Walska Returns

NEW YORK, July 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Ganna Walska, bride of Harold P. McCormick, of Chicago, returned from Europe on the Steamship Olympic today, observing behind a cloud of reticence her theatrical plans for the future.

Mme Walska who was met at the pier and affectionately greeted by her husband, had refused to see reporters on the ship, slipping ashore before they could spot her.

Standing with her husband, however, she gave the information that she did not expect over to appear again on the stage in New York City. She refused to discuss her recent Bergdoll May Return To U. S.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(By the Associated Press).—A possibility that Grover Cleveland Bergdoll may voluntarily return to the United States and serve a prison sentence for evading the draft, is seen by some officials here as a result of recent conference with the Bergdoll attorneys.

Hope of such a development is based upon a supposition that at least some of the Bergdoll property taken over by the government during the war might be returned should the fugitive give himself up.

When Mrs. Emma Bergdoll recently applied for a passport to visit her son in Europe, her lawyers said to have indicated that she would use her influence to have him serve out his five year sentence and make restoration of at least a part of his estate a legal possibility. In all, the alien property office holds property valued at about $1,300,000 belonging to Grover Bergdoll.

Canton, China, Is Seized By 5,000 Yunnanese Troops

SHANGHAI, July 18.—(By the Associated Press).—Canton today is in the hands of 5,000 Yunnanese troops, who split with General Hsu Tsung Chi, chief military headman of Sun Yat Sen. Following friction between the constitutionalist leader and his Yunnanese lieutenants, the latter walked out of the battle line on the North River, returned to Canton and seized all points of strategic value here.

After the Mainly M. E. had led the way with three runs over a score for four innings the Episcopal M. E. nine staged a comeback yesterday evening on the sixteenth street diamond and won an 8 to 4 victory by piling up 7 juicy rallies in the sixth frame. The defeat caused Mainly to sink deeper into the dark cellar. McCarty started on the mound for Mainly but when Bigelow scored in the first round he was scored in in favor of Shookwiler, taken out when seven hits and a walk came when seven hits and a walk netted seven runs. Bratton and Grimm were the king hitters of the contest getting three bingles out of three trips to the rubber.

This evening First Christian and Second Presbyterian outfits will play a postponed game. Thursday's Scotioville and First Christian meet.

Yesterday's game, play by play: First Inning Doherty doubled to center. R. Keyser flied to right. Staten out on strikes. Woods singled to right and took second and Doherty went home on Hubbard's mad drive to the plate. J. Keyser rolled to first.

FEATURES OF YESTERDAY'S GAMES

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 18—Carl Mays stood up on the mound in Cleveland yesterday and tossed the ball to the Indians, who returned the compliment by knocking it all over the lot for 13 runs and 25 hits.

The St. Louis Browns, playing at home, won from the Red Sox 10 to 1. Danforth struck out ten men and allowed only seven hits.

In Boston, Laque, Cincinnati's pitcher, scored his fourteenth and fifteenth victory when he took both games of a double header away from the home team 4 to 3 and 9 to 6. He pitched six innings of the first game and all of the second.

In Chicago the Philadelphia Americans were unable to find the ball and the westerners won the final game of the series 8 to 1, a homer by Hauser saving the visitors from a shut out.

The Tigers defeated Washington in Detroit, 4 to 2 with Rice's hitting featuring. He hit a single, double and triple in four times at bat and scored twice.

The Giants signed up a new lease on life by trimming the Chicago team 7 to 3, including two homers by Snyder and Graef, each delivered with a gun on base.

The Brooklyn Robins, playing at home, won the deciding game of the series with the Pirates in a one inning rally 6 to 2, taking all their runs in the fourth.

St. Louis won the final game in the series with Philadelphia in the latter's home when Fred Toney out-pitched Jimmy Ring in 10 innings for a final score of 2 to 1.

Tell It To Pitchers; Ruth Has New Bat

CLEVELAND, O., July 18—Babe Ruth is using a new bat, which he has named "Old Sam." It is the gift of Sam Crawford, former star outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, himself a home run hitter before the days of lively balls.

"Old Sam" came to Ruth on July 1, since when he has made 27 hits, including 6 home runs, in 65 times at bat.

The bat is one inch shorter and four ounces lighter than the club Babe formerly used. It is fashioned of green wood with a grain running laterally to that of the ordinary bat and is made of four pieces, cleverly dove-tailed together.

Kearns Open To Best Proposition; South American Offer Looks Tempting

NEW YORK, July 18—Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, has promised to decide this afternoon whether he will sign for a world's championship bout with Firpo to be held in the U. S. or in Buenos Aires, the challenger's stamping ground, according to Tex Rickard, who hopes to stage the combat.

Kearns at first stated he wanted to put Dempsey up against Firpo in this country around Labor Day and against Harry Wills, negro challenger, just before the world's series.

Late last night however, he admitted he was open to the best proposition, and would accept Tex's South American proposal if nothing better was offered.

Rickard reported he had received word from Buenos Aires that a $500,000 guarantee could be raised on short notice and that a conservative gate estimate was $800,000.

The Locomotives won a fast and snappy struggle at the Millbrook yard yesterday afternoon over the Clerks, the second players coming from behind in the closing rounds and pinching off the handsome victory by the tight score of 4 to 3.

While outlit by a margin of nearly two to one, Captain Nate Russell and his pupils were out in front most of the way, pushing over a couple of markers in the second and added their final lead in the fourth, bunching their safe blows in these two sessions. Rodgers led off with a beautiful triple to the left field fence in the second, but was caught at the plate on Russell's slip to short.

Smith got on base through an error on his roller to third and Waller came thru with a Texas leaguer to right which put the two runners over. Russell singled in the fourth and again Waller came through with the necessary punch to score the run.

For the Locomotives, King walked in the second and scooped home when Reinhard passed a triple to center, and added another in the fourth on hits by Hensley and Davis and a fielder's choice. In the sixth the Locomotives put on steam and moved up on even terms when King shot a double to left and registered on Davis' shot to center for three bases. Quickly disposing of the enemy in the seventh, the second players won it out, 10th getting on through Waller's error, and as Gins struck out attempting to steal, Catcher Russell's peg going through McAfee and the runner raced home.

King was a big ball of wax for the winners, as he got on the patios three times and registered a trio of game winners. Gins and Burke both pitched good ball but the latter's support cracked at critical times. Waller starred both at bat and in the field for the losers. The score:

Capt. Thomas Jackson Answers Final Call

Thomas Jackson Hopkins, pioneer riverman, pilot on Ohio river boats for forty years died at his home in Ironton Tuesday following an illness with pericarditis.

Capt. Hopkins, during his river days, was pilot on the Fleetwood, Bostonia, Keystone, Boone and other river crafts. He served on the Fleetwood during the thrilling days of '84, when the entire Ohio River valley was visited by a disastrous flood. He was a brother of the late Capt. Homer Hopkins, who died in 1900 at his home in Ironton.

Puzzling Plays

By Billy Evans

THE PLAY

Here is a play that involves juggling of fly ball.

There is a runner on third and one man out. The batsman hits to left center. The left and center fielders start after the ball. The left fielder makes a play on the ball, but as the ball strikes his hands he stumbles and the ball is knocked into the air.

The center fielder, who is nearby, completes the catch by setting the ball before it touches the ground.

The runner on third held his base until the ball struck the hands of the left fielder. He then started for the plate.

The center fielder, after completing the catch, threw the ball to the third baseman, who touched that base and claimed a third out.

The contention was raised that the base runner had no right to leave his base until the completion of the catch, that the left fielder had merely intercepted the ball.

What about this play? THE INTERPRETATION

The run counts. The runner on third held his base until the fly ball touched the hands of a fielder.

The fact that the left fielder did not retain the ball, and that the play was completed by the center fielder, has no bearing on the play.

If a distinction was made as to completion of the catch, fielders would be constantly tossing the ball around to keep base runners up in the air.

The rule states a base runner who holds his base on a fly ball, shall have the right to advance the moment such fly ball touches the hands of a fielder.

When an opponent's ball strikes that of a competitor on the fairway, causing the ball to roll a considerable distance and then come to rest in a such spot that makes it almost impossible to play the ball, what is the proper procedure? The main point in dispute is as to whether the ball can be replaced or must be dropped.

When a player's ball is struck by that of an opponent on the fairway, the player has the right to lift his ball and drop it as near as possible at the place from which it was moved. In such a happening the ball cannot be replaced on the fairway. That is permissible only on the putting green. The ball must be dropped on the fairway.

In a match game of A and B, the second shot of A is about 50 yards from the hole. In lining up with the cup, A discovers some loose impediment on the green that he believes may possibly interfere with the roll of his ball. Has A the right to remove such impediment from his putting green even though his ball is not on some?

The player has such a right even though he is not on the green. The rule says the player has such a right irrespective of the position of the player's ball. That covers the above situation.

A FAIR DIVISION

A catch phrase that is gaining much favor runs as follows: "Pay As You Pave." Of course, not you, but all of us pave and pay. The work is not individual it is collective and public.

The building is not done for today but for years; not for the benefit of this generation only, but for another to come as well.

Pay as you go is a most excellent preachment to the individual, when applied to his individual wants and desires, but it has no place in business, nor in public improvement. If it did the wheels of progress would stop going around, or else revolve so slowly that age, blindness, death, would come before any appreciable advance would be made.

Build as it is profitable is a better doctrine than pay as you pave.

It is no warrant for extravagance. If a manufacturer can do more work and decrease his overhead on the output he is justified, he is compelled in trade morals, to get more machinery, even on the installment plan; if the merchant sees where he can increase profits by carrying more stock he is warranted in asking credit. It is doubly so with the community in its investments. It would be folly to pave a block at a time because that is all it can pay for at the moment. Far better to borrow and build more and save money. No city we ever heard of went bankrupt because it made public improvements. It gets into the financial dumps because of waste, extravagance, or graft.

Scioto county needs a new court house. She is going to build a new one, on borrowed money. Isn't that just and wise? The court house will stand, not for a year, but for a century and more. It is only fair that the generations to come, who will have the use of it, should share in its cost.

THE MINNESOTA ELECTION

A partial answer, at least, to President Harding's swing across the continent to test the pulse of the people in regard to his administration, is returned by Minnesota.

Therein a political non-descript has beaten the man, favored by Harding for senator and to whose support the Republican national committee threw all its influence and resources.

There is no question about the directness and decisiveness with which the defeat came. The election was accepted before hand as a test of the administration's favor with the people and fought clearly along that line. There is no comfort even in the fact that it was a by-election. A heavy vote was out and the majority for the victor is robust.

Not even can the supporters of Harding have the small moiety of saying that abnormal conditions had overwhelming result and Magnus Johnson, the winner, was a candidate of unusual personal popularity. President Harding has balked them on the first by laying it down that universal prosperity prevailed and the Republican press has insisted that Johnson was rough, rude and offensive in his personality.

In truth, though, Harding's administration has been lacking in popular appeal. It has fallen down in performance before an overzealous propaganda of what it was going to do. With it was always praise and performance before hand and apology and more praise and promise afterwards.

No state ever showed such a revulsion in form as Minnesota in this election of Monday. It usually counts its Republican majority by the hundreds of thousands, yet it gives this clamorous candidate of strange and vague doctrines a majority that grew from the announcement of the first poll result until the last. Greater contrast could not be drawn between individuals than that which existed between Knute Nelson, whose death caused the vacancy to which Johnson was elected, and Johnson himself. Nelson was of a studious and steady mein, he was cultured and sedate, diligently acquiring knowledge in books and wherever it could be gleaned. He was a conservative. Johnson knows it all to begin with and doesn't, in his own words, "give a damn for books." With a voice that is said to be the strongest in Minnesota, he is uncouth and rude of speech and just simply roars down opposition. Like nearly all Swedes he is a Republican in politics, but he is the extremist of all radicals, vociferating all sorts of fantastic economic fallacies and professing to believe they can be brought about inside the Republican party. He is not an exotic, he's an exercise, and likewise his days will be few.

New York=Day=By=Day

BY O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 18.—Paul Savin is quietly disposing of his huge chain of cafes which to Broadway means that the "street that whips the universe" is convinced the popularity of the lobster palace is gone forever.

Savin, who bartered his way up from the East Side with a few tell-tale facial marks of the fray, is the power behind the throne in the night life world of New York. Beginning with the Little Club, he dotted the Tenderloin with gilded eateries.

The Palais Royal was his as were Monte Carlo, Rector's, Montmartre, Club Royal and about a dozen others. There was a time when a high priced cafe made $2,000 on a barrel of whiskey. Now, with the covert gouge and high food prices, they can scarcely pay rent.

Those shrewd fellows-in-the-know, however, say only the razzle-dazzle jazz mosques with expensive decorations will die, and they point with a certain pride to the hundreds of sedate little places that have been opened.

In these places the atmosphere is that of the club. Those who are known, can get surreptitious drinks in tea cups and beer with a wallop. There is no music and only about a dozen tables in each. There are Edies and Jimmies and Jacks who act as managers and personally pass upon the eligibility of patrons to get what they want.

There is one man who has twelve of these places in the Tenderloin and is said to be growing rich. Just now the high-priced cafe is being kept up by visitors. The New Yorker is giving it the go-by and dining in the unpretentious substitute.

In an all night lunch place on Sixth Avenue I was interested in four young men who are types that literally come up from the gutters. They wore caps, shirts open at the throat and spoke out of the side of their mouths. They talked of being "genny" and "cock-eyed" and how they were laying for this cop and that. One spoke of giving "his dame" a "shiner." They were impudent and rough with the kindly silver-haired cashier and "razzed" the waiter for serving small portions. A policeman stepped into the place to telephone and their bravado evaporated. But out on the street again they went swaggering up the sidewalk.

The jaunty young cabin boys off ocean liners are another group of young men who seem freighted with worldliness. There is a conceited swing to their walk and a sophistication that belies their years. They delight in having their pictures taken at the hurry-up galleries and posing them back to girls across the sea.

The Hour Before Dawn

(New York Herald)

Lonely the call of a sea gull sounds. Sobbing and sullen, the low wind veers; Like a beacon light on its stately rounds The moon to her high hung place appears. And a wet mist falls like a veil of tears. Strange are the guides along my way— Only the moon and the sea gull's cry And the high, sharp hiss of the breaking spray. And—wondering sorry and lone as I— The glint of a star in the ghostly sky. Oh, wild is the wave and frail my bark. But my hand must hold, and it does not tire. Till the dawn has shattered the pathless dark. And lit the way with its torch of fire Between my heart and my heart's desire.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

HIGH TIME

By Berton Braley

WHEN you're tired of work and you're tired of play,
When you're restless by night and you're restless by day,
And when you're convinced that in every old way
There's something wrong with creation;
When you are a pest to your children and wife,
When everything stirs you to anger and strife,
And all you can see is the dark side of life,
It's time that you took a vacation.

WHEN you start to think, "I'm a downtrodden wight,
And there's simply nobody treating me right,"
When all of the world seems to ride you for spite,
And life is one long aggravation;
When little things bother, and big things appall,
When most of your thoughts are of worry and call,
And you are fed up and displeased with it all,
It's time that you took a vacation.

WHEN rain makes you ugly, and sun makes you sore,
When you and your virtues don't jibe any more,
When all of your fellow men's ways you deplore,
And view them with sour indignation;
When you're all the symptoms of sullen despair,
Stop gnashing your teeth and quit tearing your hair;
Snap out of it, beat it—go on and get the air!
It's time that you took a vacation.

B: "Yes, ve use a little horse meat."
F: "Vat else?"
B: "Oh, a little rabbit."
F: "Vat proportion?"
B: "About 50-50, one horse—one rabbit."
